CONNECTION DESK

Connection Desk Ambassadors can help with many areas of student success, including answering academic advising appointment questions, signing students in for appointments throughout the CORD, troubleshooting concerns, navigating campus resources, and referring to advocates.

Stop by the Connection Desk to get help from an ambassador anytime the CORD is open.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION

Supplemental Instruction (SI) offers a series of weekly sessions for historically challenging courses where you can gather with classmates and an SI Leader, discuss ideas, ask questions, and develop strategies for learning.

Registration for Fall 2026 opens in Workday Student in July.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Following the "Students Helping Students" model, we employ approximately 250 U of A students each semester to deliver services. Learn more about student employment opportunities available to you during your time at the U of A!

TUTORING

Tutors use their expertise and prior course experiences to guide you through course content from over 100 UofA courses each semester.

You can meet with a tutor for an in-person or online appointment, join a Study Club, stop by the CORD during drop-in hours, or attend one of our Study Halls!

WRITING STUDIO

The Writing Studio provides you with one-on-one assistance at any stage of the writing process. You can work with a Writing Studio Consultant on course papers, scholarship essays, personal statements, and more.

You can meet with your consultant in person, online, or just drop by the CORD when you have a question!

FIRST- YEAR SEMINAR

First-Year Seminar is an opportunity for students in programs in ARSC, EDUC, AFLS, and ARCH. The course is designed to equip students for social and academic success at the University of Arkansas. This seminar uses intellectual virtues as a framework to discuss and develop these tools.

You will forge positive relationships with faculty and staff committed to first-year student success and meet other first year students in a typically smaller environment than a lot of other first semester courses.

360 & ASAP

The 360 Program offers one-on-one support for students' academic transition, financial planning, social engagement and wellness during their time at the U of A. Programming includes placement in a 360 UNIV 10051 section and an assigned 360 advisor & peer mentor.

ASAP celebrates and supports the academic achievement of first-generation Arkansas students at the University of Arkansas. Programming includes a summer bridge program, academic, financial, and career guidance, mentoring, and more!

Participation is by invitation in 360 & ASAP.

FINANCIAL EMPOWERMENT

Financial Empowerment Coaches work with you to create strategies for navigating the financial aspects of college and understanding how academic choices can affect your total cost of attendance.

We will work with you in three key areas:

- understanding how to fund your education and future goals;
- navigating your current financial environment;
- and exploring financial strategies to pay for college.

Book an appointment or drop-in at the CORD.

MAJOR EXPLORATION

Exploration Coaches help you make sense of the major selection process. Our coaches offer holistic major exploration support in one centralized location, so you don't have to visit multiple offices to get the guidance you need.

Exploration coaches can help you:

- explore resources to clarify your decision to change your major;
- select a major based on your interests, skills, and career aspirations;
- understand key major change processes; and
- connect with people who will assist you with changing your major.

SUCCESS COACHING

Success Coaches offer personalized academic support and connect you to the resources you need to stay on track with your academic goals.

Success coaches can help you:

- understand your current experiences, habits, and possible areas for growth
- explore potential solutions
- build new habits
