What are you going to study?

Whether you're dedicating time to homework or exam prep, plan out what you will work on during the time with your group.

How long will the session last?

Before you meet, decide how much time you want to study together, and set designated break times to limit distractions.

How often will you meet?

Whether you meet weekly or spontaneously before a big test, find out how often the group wants to meet to make sure you're all on the same page!
