
For student papers you won't need a running head, just the page number.

1

Include 3-4 double spaced blank lines between the top of the page and the title.

Web Perspectives: A Visual Analysis of Arachnid Behavior in Urban Environments

Title should be centered, bold and in title case- that is, all words capitalized except minor prepositions, conjunctions, or articles, and even these if they start the title or subtitle.

John J. Jameson Jr.

Department of Biological Sciences, University of Arkansas

BIOL 4004: Studies in Arthropod Behavior

Dr. Benjamin F. Parker

August 10, 2021

One space below the title should be the name(s) of the author(s), along with their institution, the course this paper is for, their professor, and the assignment's due date.

Unless specified by your professor, you do not need to include an author note.
